

Please leave "our" DO NOT CALL law as is. The lack of telemarketers is ringing is just what we needed many, many years ago. If we are not complaining to you, why should you change it. I would hope that your office would have more important things to focus on than changing something that is working fine.